REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

11. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The instant invention is generally relates to an information processing apparatus having a capability of halting a printing process for off-line processing, and method for controlling printing process including halting the printing process for off-line.

With regard to Claim 19, the closest prior arts of record, Anderson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,483,999), Turpin et al (U.S. Patent No. 5,745,712), and Johnson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 2002/021454), do not disclose or suggest, among the other limitations, the additional required limitation of "halting command generation means for generating a halt command to halt print processing using a form selected by said selection means based on setting contents set by said first and second setting means". These additional features in combination with all the other features required in the claimed invention are neither taught nor suggested by Anderson et al., Turpin et al. and Johnson et al.

With regard to Claim 25, the closest prior arts of record, Anderson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,483,999), Turpin et al (U.S. Patent No. 5,745,712), and Johnson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 2002/021454), do not disclose or suggest, among the other limitations, the additional required limitation of " generating a halt command to halt print processing using a form selected by said selection means based on setting contents set by said first and second setting means". These additional features in combination with all the other features required in the claimed invention are neither taught nor suggested by Anderson et al., Turpin et al. and Johnson et al.

With regard to Claim 32, the closest prior arts of record, Anderson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,483,999), Turpin et al (U.S. Patent No. 5,745,712), and Johnson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 2002/021454), do not disclose or suggest, among the other limitations, the additional required limitation of "generation means for generating a halt command to halt print processing using a form selected by said selection means based on setting contents set by said first and second setting means". These additional features in combination with all the other features required in the claimed invention are neither taught nor suggested by Anderson et al., Turpin et al. and Johnson et al.

With regard to Claims 35 and 36, the claims are depending from the independent Claim 32, each encompasses the required limitations recited in the independent claim discussed above.

12. Therefore, Claims No. 19-20, 22, 25, 28-29, 32 and 35-36 are allowed.

13. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
